The City of Buffalo Owner Occupied assistance is provided in the form of a low interest loan to all applicants. Loan repayment terms are based upon individual eligibility and are NOT grants.

Eligible rehabilitation activities include and may be limited to one (1) item listed below:

1. Break in main water line
2. Break in main sewer line
3. Hazard at main electrical panel
4. Inoperable heating system
5. Test and repair of gas line as identified by utility provider

A limited number of applications will be taken to address deteriorated roof conditions for the elderly. In all cases, assistance can only be provided when a residence is in generally good condition, as determined by technical staff assigned to the program. The applicant MUST reside in the home for which they are seeking assistance.

Additional requirements apply. This program is designed to provide emergency assistance to owner occupants and is NOT intended to serve as a maintenance program for homeowners.

Eligibility requirements apply. An application will NOT be completed until all supporting documentation is presented. NO EXCEPTIONS. NO Waiting lists are permitted for this program.
