Dear Buffalo Fire:

Thank you for your support of Community Services for the Developmentally Disabled.

We are happy to have you as a supporter of our mission as we enrich and enhance the lives of hundreds of people with developmental disabilities in Western New York.

Your help and assistance is greatly appreciated, and we wanted to be sure that everyone in our company and community knew that you and your organization provides great service and community building opportunities to Community Services.

Please find enclosed a few pieces of our literature to help you understand our mission and commitment to the people of Western New York.

I have highlighted or marked the places where your organization has been mentioned.

As always, please feel free to contact us with any questions or more information.

Once again, thank you for your help to us and everyone in Western New York.

Sincerely,

Dean Stresing
Community Relations Coordinator
